

Earthquake Readiness and Lessons Learned

The Jamaica Fulbright-Humphrey Alumni Association (JFHAA) supported by

The Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy

presents

The Fulbright-Humphrey Speaker Series

The eighth in a series of lectures and panel discussions aimed at positively stimulating, enlightening and informing public discourse on issues of national significance

Mr. Ronald Jackson

Director General

Office of Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management

Managing Post Earthquake and Tsunami Responses

Dr. Lyndon Brown

Research Fellow and Head of the Earthquake Unit

University of the West Indies (UWI) Mona Campus

The Science of the Earthquake Phenomenon/Jamaica's Seismicity

Ms. Beverley Lashley

Fulbright Research Scholar

Acting Head, Science Branch Library, UWI Mona Campus

and Coordinator, Caribbean Disaster Information Network, UWI Mona Campus

Documenting and Accessing Earthquake Hazards Information

Moderator: Dr. Claudette Crawford-Brown

Fulbright Research Scholar

Lecturer, Department of Sociology, Psychology and Social Work,

Faculty of Social Sciences, University of the West Indies Mona Campus

Refreshments: 5:00 p.m. to 5:25 p.m.

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

The mission of the JFHAA is to contribute to national development by initiating and participating in activities that foster advancement in education and the development of a civil society, while promoting mutual understanding through liaison with organizations of a similar nature worldwide in an atmosphere of fellowship among members.